NOTICE TO ALL APPLICANTS: The YMCA enforces its policies and procedures to prevent child abuse.

All staff must comply to a code of conduct which outlines specific expectations of the staff to create a safe environment for all. Allegations or suspicions of child abuse are taken very seriously at the Y and will be reported to the proper authorities for investigation. We minimize opportunities for abuse to occur and we talk with children about personal safety. We also screen carefully to prevent abusers from having access to our program and facility and we provide child abuse prevention training to staff.
