WELCOMING OUR NEW CEO, DR. KIMBERLY EATON

Dr. Kimberly Eaton has been selected as the new CEO of Waynesboro Area YMCA. Kimberly's own experiences at the Y, as a child and a parent, lend to her excitement to make an impact on our community through the mission of the Y.

Dr. Kimberly Eaton comes to the Y with a wealth of experience and history of service to the area. With a Ph. D. in Clinical Social Work, she is a graduate of Hood College and University of Maryland. She is a licensed Social Worker in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Dr. Eaton entered the field as a counselor in a domestic violence program. She served for 10 years as the residential director for several girls' group homes and a treatment foster care program in Maryland. Currently, she is the county's Community Connections Division Director. Dr. Eaton supervises all of the reentry programs. In addition, Dr. Eaton directs the Grants Management Department which writes and oversees millions of dollars in grants annually.

Youth programs are particularly special to Dr. Eaton. She has been the volunteer coordinator for the Waynesboro Youth Aid Panel (YAP) since 2002 when the program started. Dr. Eaton serves as the Franklin Together Reentry Coalition Managing Co-Chair. Franklin Together is recognized as a premier reentry coalition and noted for holding reentry simulations that educate and de-stigmatize justice-involved individuals.

Teaching is also a passion for Dr. Eaton. At Shippensburg University, she taught as an adjunct professor of undergrad and graduate level courses for both the Social Work and Criminal Justice departments.

"We are thrilled to welcome Dr. Kimberly Eaton as the new Waynesboro Area YMCA CEO," said Tiffany Bloyer, President of the Board of Directors. "She is a proven leader and we are confident that Kimberly will lead our organization to continued success in years to come".
